Second Sunday of Advent, Sunday, December 4, 2016

2nd Sunday of Advent

John wore clothing made of camel's hair and had a leather belt around his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey. At that time Jerusalem, all Judea, and the whole region around the Jordan were going out to him and were being baptized by him in the Jordan River as they acknowledged their sins. Mt 3:4-6

Stewarding our Gifts –
Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I am very happy to greet all of you as you gather for mass in our parishes on this Stewardship Commitment weekend. As I am learning myself, Christian Stewardship, a hallmark of our diocesan life, encompasses the totality of our being, everything, the mind, the heart, the body, our relationships, our vocation, our finances and our service to others. It is a response of gratitude to God that leaves no part of us unaffected. It is a beautiful and enriching way we are called to live our lives, glorifying God.

It is for this reason that I am very happy to learn that the theme and subtheme of this new year of stewardship focuses on the two verbs: stewarding and glorifying. Stewarding our gifts means to use the gifts that have been given to us as a way of giving back. To steward a gift is to protect it, to cherish it, and most of all to use it for its intended purpose. And so we can well understand that we are called to steward our minds, our hearts, our bodies, our relationships, our vocations, our finances and our outreach to others, indeed everything that is ours in a way that not just helps ourselves and others, but also glorifies God, the giver of all gifts. Have you glorified God today in your stewardship?

At the end of mass, we are now dismissed with one of four options. One of them, our subtheme has become one of my favorites. Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your lives. This is our challenge for a new week, our call, our invitation, how to spend our time, how to use our talents and to share our treasure so that God will be glorified. I pray that as you hear the Lord's invitation today, that you will search deep into your hearts and souls and there embrace a total response that will truly glorify God by your life.

Thank you and God bless you.

Stewardship of Treasure

Weekly Average Needed $10,585.00
Your Gifts to God $14,678.16
Gifts from Children $40.94

Please remember Holy Name Church and School in your Will.

We must be good stewards of God's gifts to us, receiving them gratefully and cultivating them with care lest we be the ones about whom John the Baptist speaks today: "Every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire."

We can't fully practice our Catholic faith without the life and ministry of priests.

You will soon receive an invitation to consider gift to the Christmas Call to Sharing—a gift of gratitude to support retired priests and the education of seminarians. God has blessed us this year with 53 men in the seminary and continues to bless us with so many retired priests who serve the Church in many ways. I would ask that you be as generous as you possibly can be at this most holy time of year.

"Stewarding our Gifts: Go in peace glorifying the Lord by your life."

Advent prepares us for the birth of Jesus Christ. The prophets prepared Israel for the coming of their Savior. Isaiah proclaimed a world full of life and beauty readying itself for the Son of God to appear. Jesus tells us that John the Baptist was a prophet foretold in scripture to be the messenger sent by God to prepare the way. St. Paul tells us to be prepared for the second coming of our Lord. Jesus preached that the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand. May we contemplate his words and allow them to grow to fulfillment in our lives as we share Christ's message of love.
