32nd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Those who are deemed worthy to attain to the coming age and to the resurrection of the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage." Jesus' response to the Sadducees regarding their question about the resurrection of the dead actually raises another question for us: what about marriage in heaven? We understand marriage to be "until death do us part," but what exactly becomes of this special relationship in the afterlife?

Pope Francis gave a homily on this Gospel passage in which he discussed the mysterious transformation that will take place for those who enter into the joy of heaven. The Holy Father tells us, Jesus explains that "life after death does not have the same parameters as our earthly life. Eternal life is another life, in another dimension where, among other things, there will be no marriage... The life that God prepares for us is not a mere embellishment of the present one: it surpasses our imagination, for God continually amazes us with his love and mercy" (Angelus, November 10, 2013).

An interesting interpretation of this comes from Fr. Raniero Cantalamessa, the Preacher of the Papal Household, who said "marriage does not come to a complete end at death but is transfigured" (Homily, November 10, 2006). Catholic author Stephen Ray described it this way in a letter to his mother who was grieving the loss of her husband: "We cannot understand our new spiritual bodies and heavenly existence any more than a caterpillar can comprehend what it will be like to be a butterfly. We cannot anticipate how personal relationships will flower in glory any more than [an] acorn can anticipate standing 50 feet tall." Whatever it will be, we can trust it will be wonderful!

“Administrando Nuestros Donos: Vayan en paz, dando Gloria al Señor con sus vidas”

Nuestro camino hacia el cielo, requiere encontrar el camino que nos lleve a Dios. El Antiguo Testamento nos provee los Diez Mandamientos como instrucciones, que nos dicen si nos desviamos del camino. La lectura de hoy del libro de Macabeos, ilustra cómo los siete hermanos y su madre interpretaron el primer mandamiento. Cuando les ofrecieron su libertad a cambio de renunciar a la ley mosaica, ellos prefirieron morir que renunciar a la comodidad de la vida en la tierra. Sabiendo que Dios es firme en su amor, ellos pusieron sus vidas a un lado y dieron Gloria al Padre. En el Evangelio de Lucas, Jesús afirma que durante la resurrección de los muertos, los hijos de Dios se levantarán. Que recibamos la sabiduría para reconocer las distracciones de esta vida y que nos alejemos de ellas para dar Gloria a Dios.

Friday, November 11, is Veterans Day, Prayer for Veterans

Heavenly Father,
On this day, help us remember those who gave of themselves to keep us safe and secure. Enkindle in our consciences a desire to serve those who served their country selflessly. Give us the grace to aid those who have given aid and protection to us and others both here and overseas. Let us never forget the causes for which they fought or the bravery they showed on the battlefield. May we always be mindful of those who paid the price for our freedom, just as your Son gave his life to free us from the bondage of sin. Amen.

Just a thank you to all who helped and attended the Trunk or Treat. We had a great turnout.

"Stewarding our Gifts: Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life"

Our journey toward heaven requires finding the path that will lead us to God. The Old Testament provided the Ten Commandments as instructions that tell us when we are going astray. The reading today from the Second Book of Maccabees illustrates how the seven brothers and their mother interpreted the first commandment. When offered their freedom in exchange for transgressing Mosaic law, they chose death rather than the comfort of life on earth. Knowing that God is steadfast in his love, they placed their lives aside to give glory to the Father. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus affirms that at the resurrection of the dead, the children of God will rise. May we receive wisdom to recognize the distractions of this life that we may turn from them to give glory to God.
